

Kiss My Face

~ 155 BPM

Verse 1

| Em9

I can see the coin rotating on my kitchen table which side will it choose to fall

I can see the scissors cutting patterns in the folded paper what will it be looking like will it match to something just like our strange state of still wet paint dont touch the walls can it patch the power to unfold the details of this wrecking tent with us inside ithout your eyes repeating to me "oh just go away"
